Report to the Government of Samoa on Invasive Plant Species of Environmental Concern James C. Space, 2002

Literature and the Arts since the 1960s Jorge Almeida e Pinho, Márcia Lemos, 2020-08-13 This collection of essays focuses on addressing the imaginative wake of the rebellious late 1960s with a particular but not exclusive focus on word and image relations The volume showcases and discusses the impact of such processes on literature and the arts of that mythologized historical period It explores the impact of its defining causes hopes and regrets on the creative imagination The awakening moment for that extraordinary momentous period in the global socio political memory was May 1968 which came to be seen as the culmination and epitome of a series of processes involving protest and the affirmation of previously silent or subaltern causes Such processes and causes were predicated on challenges to established powers and mindsets and hence on demands for change which have had rich consequences in literature and the arts Remaking Madrid H.

Stapell, 2015-10-14 Remaking Madrid is the first full length study of Madrid s transformation from the dreary home of the Franco dictatorship into a modern and vibrant city It argues that this remarkable transformation in the 1980s helped secure Spain s fragile transition to democracy and that the transformation itself was primarily a product of regionalism even though the capital is typically associated with Spanishness and with the nation The official project to distance Madrid from its dictatorial past included urban renewal and administrative reform but above all it involved greater cultural participation which led the revival of the capital s public festivals and the development of a modern cultural outpouring known as the movida madrileña The book also explains the ultimate failure of regionalism in the capital by the end of the 1980s and asks whether or not Madrid s inclusive form of civic identity might have served as a model for the country as a whole

Discontent Beatriz Serrano, 2025-09-02 From a dazzling new international voice an audacious darkly funny novel about a young woman whose carefully crafted office persona threatens to crack when she s forced to attend her company s annual retreat A wry work of spectacular wit Beatriz Serrano writes with a caustic flare for detail exploring the small humiliations of the everyday corporate office with charm and utter hilarity Absolutely brilliant Danya Kukafka author of Notes on an Execution On the surface Marisa s life looks enviable She lives in a beautiful apartment in the center of Madrid she has a hot neighbor who is always around to sleep with her and she s quickly risen through the ranks at a successful advertising agency And yet she s drowning in a dark hole of existential dread induced by the banality of corporate life Marisa hates her job and everyone at it She spends her working hours locked in her office hiding from her coworkers bingeing YouTube videos and getting high on tranquilizers When she has the time she escapes to her favorite museum where she contemplates the meaning of life while staring at Hieronymus Bosch paintings or trying to get hit by a car so she can go on disability But Marisa s dubious success which is largely built on lies and work she s stolen from other people is in danger of being exposed when she s forced to go on her company s team building retreat Isolated in the Segovia forests haunted by the deeply buried memory of a former coworker and surrounded by psychopathic bosses overzealous coworkers flirty retreat staff and an excess of drugs Marisa finds herself acting on her wildest impulses and is pushed to the brink of a complete spiral A New

A Companion to Pedro Almodóvar Marvin D'Lugo, Kathleen M. Vernon, 2013-04-22 A Companion to Pedro Almodóvar Marvin D Lugo and Kathleen M Vernon give us the ideal companion to Pedro Almodóvar's films. Established and emerging writers offer a rainbow of insights for fans as well as academics. Jerry W Carlson, Professor of Film Studies, The City College Graduate Center, CUNY. Rarely has a contemporary film artist been treated to the kind of broad, rich discussion of their work that can be found in A Companion to Pedro Almodóvar. Richard Peña, Professor of Film Studies, Columbia University. Once the enfant terrible of Spain's youth culture explosion, the Movida, Pedro Almodóvar's distinctive film style and career longevity have made him one of the most successful and internationally known filmmakers of his generation. Offering a state-of-the-art appraisal of Almodóvar's cinema, this original collection is a searching analysis of his technique and cultural significance that includes work by leading authorities on Almodóvar as well as talented young scholars. Crucially included here are contributions by film historians from Almodóvar's native Spain, where he has been undervalued by the academic and critical establishment. With a balance between textual and contextual approaches, the book expands the scope of previous work on the director to explore his fruitful collaborations with fellow professionals in the areas of art, design, fashion and music, as well as the growing reach of a global Almodóvar brand beyond Europe and the United States to Latin America and Asia. It also proposes a reevaluation of the political meanings and engagement of his cinema from the perspective of the profound cultural and historical upheavals that have transformed Spain since the 1970s.
